

Burns Supper

Saturday January 28

If you've never been to a Burns Supper or tasted haggis then now's your chance. Join in the traditional 'Selkirk Grace' then watch as the haggis is piped in and ceremonially addressed before raising a glass to The Toast to The Haggis. Les & Colin your kilted hosts, will take you through the inspiration behind Rabbie's songs & poems before finishing with Auld Lang Syne

Menu

A trio of smoked Fish Pates from the lochs & rivers of Scotland, hot smoked Salmon with Honey, Mackerel with Arran grain Mustard and Trout with Horseradish

~~~

Haggis, Neeps & Tatties served with a wee dram of whisky

~~~

Rannoch Moor Venison braised with red Wine & Redcurrant Jelly
Crushed New Potatoes with Stornoway Black Pudding
Braised Red Cabbage

~~~

Cranachan

Raspberries with Honey & Drambuie Cream topped with toasted Oats

~~~~~

£19.95 per person

Vegetarian & dietary options are available for each course
Wearing of kilts and tartan is not compulsory but adds to the fun!

PS if you have been to a Burns Supper before and fancy doing a recital then you will be rewarded with a wee dram

Call us on 020 8950 2851 to book your places